

Discover English as it is really spoken

Speakout 2nd Edition is a comprehensive six-level general English course for adults that has been developed in association with BBC Worldwide and BBC Learning English. The course integrates authentic video from popular BBC programmes into every unit and builds the skills and knowledge learners need to express themselves confidently in a real English-speaking environment.

The Speakout 2nd Edition Workbook contains a wide variety of practice exercises that review all the language areas covered in the Students' Book:

- Grammar, vocabulary and functional language exercises help to consolidate and extend new language
- Extra practice in reading, writing and listening extends learners' skills
- Regular review sections reinforce key language and allow learners to check their progress

MAKE YOURSELF HAPPY!

Six tips to make you happier in the next hour

You can make yourself happier starting now. In the next hour, do as many of these things as possible. Each thing you do will help you to feel happier.

- 1 ______: stand up and walk around while you talk on the phone. Or go for a quick ten-minute walk outside. Doing exercise gives you energy and makes you feel better.
- 2 ______: arrange to meet someone for lunch or send an email to a friend you haven't seen for a long time. Having good relationships with other people is one of the things that makes us happy, so stay in touch with your friends.
- 3 ______: answer a difficult email or call to make that dentist's appointment. Do it now, don't wait. Cross something off your list of things to do, to give yourself energy.
- 4 ______: order a book you want to read, plan a trip to a museum or a night out with friends. If you look forward to doing something fun in the future, it will make you feel happy right now.

5 _____: buy someone flowers, carry their bag, tell them they look nice. Do good, feel good – this really works. If you do something nice for someone, it makes you feel better.

6 _____: even when you don't feel happy, always try to smile. Put a smile on your face right now – it will make you feel better!

READING

- $\mathbf{5}$ \mathbf{A} Read the article and choose the best summary.
 - 1 how one company keeps its workers happy
 - 2 things that companies do to motivate their workers
 - 3 working for the world's best companies

FUN AT WORK

Are they great ideas or just crazy? Here are some ways that companies keep their employees happy.

- Sport can be a good way for busy workers to relax. Wright, Newman & Fischer, a group of lawyers based in London, has a small golf course in the office. The first part of the course is on the fifth floor. When your ball drops down the ninth hole, the course continues on the fourth floor. An even more relaxing sport is bowling. Maybe this is why a company called Permatech has a complete bowling alley in the basement. The employees go bowling after work and really enjoy it.
- What about alternatives to boring suits and company uniforms? One company has 'fancydress Fridays'. On the last Friday of every month, each department chooses a theme and the workers dress up accordingly. One department came as famous actors, with the boss dressed as Brad Pitt. Another department chose historical figures; there were three Julius Caesars and two Genghis Khans! And how about this idea from a company called LineHut, in Paris: they hold moustache-growing competitions for employees and customers! For men only, of course!
- Some companies like to take their employees out of the office. Finchley Management takes its workers on a trip every year. The workers go to the airport, but they don't know what country they are flying to! Trips in the past have included Rio de Janeiro, Bangkok and the Bahamas. In another company, Wicked Shakes, the staff go on free skiing holidays. And if workers stay with the US-based Indulgence Swiss Chocolate Company for five years, they get a free trip to Switzerland to taste the chocolate!
- Read the text again and answer the questions.
- 1 Where exactly is the golf course at Wright, Newman & Fischer?
- 2 How can the employees at Permatech relax after work?
- 3 What are 'fancy-dress Fridays'?
- 4 What surprise do the employees of Finchley Management get every year?

- Find words in the article that match these meanings.
- 1 a place where you can go bowling (paragraph 1)
- 2 a room in a building that is below the level of the ground (paragraph 1)
- 3 other possibilities (paragraph 2)
- 4 clothes that everyone in a company or group wears (paragraph 2)
- 5 important or famous people from the past (paragraph 2)
- 6 a visit to a place (paragraph 3)

THREE THINGS TO DO IN ... NEW YORK

There are so many things to see and do in New York, sometimes it's difficult to know where to start. In this week's guide, we look at three things you can't miss when you visit the city.

Start by spending some time in Central Park. With over 25,000 trees and lots of different types of birds, it's easy to forget you're in a big city. Relax and enjoy the fresh air or go for a tour in a horse and carriage. In summer you can go out on the lake in a boat or kayak, and in winter you can go ice-skating! After all that activity you'll be hungry, so have lunch at the famous Tavern on the Green. Great concerts take place in Central Park, too. Every year the New York Philharmonic Orchestra gives a free open-air concert and there's also the New York Shakespeare Festival at the theatre in the park.

They say that Paris has the Eiffel Tower, London has the London Eye and New York has the Empire State Building. But many people think the best views of the city are from the 'Top of the Rock' – the top floor of the GE (General Electric) building, a skyscraper in the middle of the city. At 260 metres high, it's the fourteenth tallest building in New York, and from the top you can have a fantastic view of the city.

Many people visit the famous Statue of Liberty by ferry, but also on the way is the Immigration Museum on Ellis Island. This was the place where people first arrived from 1892 to 1954, many after a long and difficult journey from other countries. Most of the island is closed to the general public, but you can visit the museum and find out about the many people who arrived here. You can also go on a tour with a guide to visit some of the old, unused buildings on the island. A very interesting day out for everyone.

MORE THAN A HOBBY

Gordon Ramsay

Winston Churchill

Noody Allen

- 1 When Wallace Stevens walked into his office every morning, his colleagues didn't know about his secret: Stevens lived a double life. By day he worked for an insurance company. The rest of his life was spent becoming one of the greatest American poets of the twentieth century.
- 2 Secret talent is more common than we think, even with people who are already famous in one area. Take Luciano Pavarotti, who was one of the world's greatest classical singers. Not many people know that before he became a singer, he was an outstanding football player. The same is true of TV chef Gordon Ramsay, who is now well-known for his brilliant cooking and his bad language. Ramsay played professional football for Glasgow Rangers, one of Scotland's best teams.
- 3 A number of politicians first made their name in other jobs. Most people know that Arnold Schwarzenegger had a very successful acting career before becoming Governor of California. Winston Churchill, prime minister of Great Britain, also had another talent: he wrote great history books. Churchill's books won him the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1953. Václav Havel, who was the first president of the Czech Republic, was also a great writer.
- 4 There are also musicians and actors who have secret talents. Paul McCartney and David Bowie are both painters, Paul Newman was a racing car driver and actor Colin Farrell is a professional line dancer. And only those who go to a little hotel bar in New York City every Monday would know that one of the best clarinet players in town is actor and film director Woody Allen. He certainly plays the clarinet better than Bill Clinton plays the saxophone!

THE GREATEST MIND IN FICTION

belong (gr)

Most of fiction's great minds belongs \bigwedge either to criminals or to the men and women who catch them. A greatest of these is probably Sherlock Holmes. The Holmes stories were written by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle a docter from edinburgh, Scotland. Conan Doyle knew a lot about the human body and pollice work, and he has used this information in his books. Very quickly, Conan Doyle's hero beccame popular. When Holmes was killed in one story, thousands of readers protested. Conan Doyle changed his mind, and Holmes appeared in another story

My top travel tips

Sandy Graves is an experienced travel writer who regularly travels all over the world. Here she shares some of her top tips.

- When you start packing, leave your suitcase open somewhere. As you think of something you need to take, pack it. Don't leave it until later or you might forget.

 Make photocopies of all your important documents and put them in your suitcase, too. If you lose your passport, having a copy will make it easier to get a new one. Pack earplugs. They're great for long flights and noisy hostels, when you really need to sleep.
- While you're travelling, be patient. Everybody wants to leave on time, but it doesn't always happen. Buses can be late, you can have problems with your documents or your card might not work in the ATM. Don't worry, there's always a way to get there. Smile and enjoy it you won't have another chance to!
- If you want more than just a holiday, try volunteering, spending some time learning new skills and meeting new people. You can travel anywhere in the world to do all kinds of different jobs, from building in Tanzania to looking after elephants in Thailand. Just think what you could do.
- Do your best to try everything around you. Try the local food, buy the terrible, cheap souvenirs (they won't feel terrible when you're back home) and take lots of photos. And talk to local people you can get so much more out of your trip if you do. Keep an open mind, and don't criticise the local culture. You might see or experience things which seem strange to you, but are normal there.
- Read the article again. Are the statements true (T) or false (F)?
- 1 Try to pack things at the same time as you think of them.
- 2 It's a good idea to take earplugs for when you want to go swimming.
- 3 It's best not to worry when you have problems.
- 4 There aren't many opportunities to do anything different when you travel.
- 5 Don't buy souvenirs if they're not good.
- 6 Try to accept things which seem strange to you.

A Read the text and match pictures A-D with paragraphs 1-4.

How to eat less

Brian Wansink of Cornell University did some experiments to show why we eat too much. Here are some of the results.

Wansink invited a group of people to lunch. He told half of them they were eating something expensive and delicious: Royal Italian Bolognese with haricots verts. He told the other half they were eating cheap food from a can. In fact, both groups ate the same food. He secretly watched them. The ones who thought they were eating expensive food ate much more than the others.

CONCLUSION: If people think the food sounds good and is expensive, they think it tastes better.

2 Wansink did an experiment at a cinema in Chicago. He gave everyone a free bag of popcorn, but the popcorn was old and tasted bad. Most people noticed this, but they still ate almost all of it.

CONCLUSION: How much we eat depends on: where we are (in the cinema); what we are doing (concentrating on a film, not on food); what other people are doing (eating popcorn). These things may be more important than the taste of the food.

Wansink went to a sports bar and gave the customers free chicken. The waiters cleaned half the tables every few minutes and took away the chicken bones. No one cleaned the other tables. The people with clean tables ate seven pieces of chicken on average. The others ate five.

CONCLUSION: When we see how much we're eating, we eat less. When we can't see how much we're eating, we eat more.

Wansink invited people to watch a video. He gave them each a bag of sweets to eat during the film. Half the bags had sweets with seven different colours. The other bags had sweets with ten different colours. The people whose sweets had more colours ate forty-three more sweets than the others.

CONCLUSION: When there is a big variety, people want to try everything, so they eat more.

- B Read the text again and circle the correct option.
- 1 Why did Wansink do the experiments?
 - a) to improve the food we eat
 - b) to discover why people eat more than they need

GRAMMAR PAST SIMPLE AND PAST CONTINUOUS

Underline the correct alternatives.

This story ¹happened/was happening while Guillermo Diaz ²studied/was studying English at a community college in the USA.
Diaz was a very bad student who never attended classes. One evening when he ³sat/was sitting in a bar, he ⁴saw/was seeing another student, Arturo, who told him about an exam the next day. Arturo said the exam was in Room 52, but Diaz thought he said Room 62. The next day, when Diaz was doing the exam, he ⁵realised/was realising that he didn't know any of the answers. He tried to ask another student for the answers while the professor ⁵didn't look/wasn't looking, but the other student ¹didn't help/wasn't helping him. The exam ħad/was having multiple-choice questions, so Diaz guessed all of the answers. A week later, while Diaz ⁴watched/was watching TV at home, he ¹oreceived/was receiving his results by post. He scored 100 percent in the exam ... on American history!

Junichi Inamoto

THE REAL MONEY MAKERS

- 1 When English football team Arsenal bought a Japanese player called Junichi Inamoto, the team's fans gave him a nickname: 'T-shirt'. Why? Because they thought the club bought him so that they could sell more Arsenal T-shirts in Japan. Inamoto was a very good player, but he played only five games in a year at Arsenal, none of them important. His name and face did, however, sell a lot of T-shirts.
- 2 These days sportspeople around the world can make lots of money without even playing. Cristiano Ronaldo, the world's highest-paid footballer in 2014, earned $80 million that year, and $28 million dollars of this was just for advertising. His weekly salary at Real Madrid was €398,000. If he played in two games a week, that was €132,666 per hour of playing! Boxer Floyd Mayweather, one of the world's highest-paid athletes, earned $105 million from just two fights.
- 3 Of course, it's not only football players and boxers who can make big money by the minute. Back in 1978, actor Marlon Brando played the role of Superman's father in the film Superman. He appeared for less than fifteen minutes in the film and didn't learn his lines. These had to be written on various pieces of paper around the film set! For this he earned $3.7 million. In 2004, Nicole Kidman made $2 million for a three-minute advertisement for the perfume Chanel No. 5. The company said it was a short film a piece of art, not just an advertisement.
- 4 So who else has made a lot of money in a short time? Of course, there is Bill Gates and the usual businesspeople: the Walton family, who own Wal-Mart; Mexican telephone billionaire Carlos Slim Helu and Howard Stern, a US radio DJ who made about £311 a minute in 2015. And what about the music business? Perhaps surprisingly, Dr Dre has made huge sums of money, earning $620 million in 2014 after selling his headphone business for $3 billion.

Maggie and Joe Smith lived in the same house for $\lambda$ fifteen years. When Joe died, Maggie sold the house to David Jones. A few years later, Maggie heard someone say that Jones had found some money in her old house. Jones told her there was $10,000 in the wall. He offered her $5,000. She agreed. A few days later, Jones asked Maggie to sign a contract that said she should accept $5,000 for any money found in the garden. She didn't sign it Instead, she took Jones to court. In court, he told the truth: there wasn't $10,000. There was $15,000. Joe Smith, Maggie's husband, was putting money in the wall for fifty years and he never told his wife. In the end, the judge decided that Mr Jones should get all of the money.

 - 4 It's a good way to earn some extra money.

MAKING THE WORLD A GREENER PLACE: GROW YOUR OWN VEGETABLES!

We meet people from around the world who enjoy growing their own food.

UNITED STATES

When you think of Washington, you might not think of vegetable patches, but there are lots of them. 'Community plots' where people can grow their own food are getting more popular. Brian Wallis, who works in banking, likes gardening in his free time. And he's not alone. 'When you work in the city, gardening is a great way to relax,' he says.

AUSTRALIA

Outside Sydney there are more than fifty community gardens. In the garden at the Addison Road Centre people grow all kinds of things, from bananas to coffee, herbs, beans and vegetables. They also have lemon, peach and cherry trees. People come here to learn new skills related to organic gardening and recycling.

KFNYA

In Kenya having a piece of land to grow food on is not just a good way to relax, it's a way to earn some extra money. Maxwell shares the land his father gave him with his six brothers. They grow bananas, coffee and sugar on the land, as well as vegetables to eat at home. 'Some of the food we eat ourselves,' he says, 'and some we sell at the market.'

RUSSIA

Every weekend in the summer, the roads of Russia's big cities are full of traffic, with families escaping to their 'dacha'. A 'dacha' can be anything from an old shed in a field to a huge house in the countryside, but the reason they go is the same. People from the city can enjoy the fresh air and grow some vegetables. Tatiana, who has a plot near the Black Sea, grows tomatoes and cucumber in the summer and cabbage in the winter. 'It always tastes much better when you grow it yourself,' she says.

Re	ead the text again and answer the questions.
1	Why does Brian Wallis think people enjoy gardening?
2	What can people learn at the Addison Road Centre, outside Sydney?
3	How did Maxwell get his land?
4	What do Maxwell and his brothers do with the food they grow?
5	What is a 'dacha' in Russia?
6	What can people who live in Russian cities enjoy at their 'dacha'?

Where is the city of love?

Which is the most romantic city in the world? Which is the cheapest? We've travelled around the world to find the cheapest, most romantic and safest cities. Can you find your perfect destination?

1) The world's most romantic city

Paris is the city of love. Most Europeans think Paris is the most romantic city in Europe, although Vienna, Prague and Venice are popular, too. So what's the most romantic thing you can do in Paris? Well it's not go to the top of the Eiffel Tower – that's too crowded. Buy some bread and cheese and enjoy a picnic near the river. Or spend the afternoon sitting outside a pavement café, just watching the people go by. Paris is perfect for couples.

2) The cheapest city in the world

Mumbai in India is the least expensive city in the world. Twice a year there is a list made which compares the cost of living in different cities around the world, and cities like Moscow, London and Tokyo are always at the top. However, Mumbai is at the bottom of the list, giving it the title of the cheapest city in the world to live in.

3) The safest city

Did you know that New York is now one of America's safest big cities? There is less crime now and what was once one of the most dangerous cities in the world is not any more. This is good news for the 55 million visitors who come to New York every year for the great shopping, the museums, some of the best restaurants in the world and, of course, to see the Statue of Liberty, Times Square and other famous sights.

READING

5 Try to guess the answers to the questions. Then read the text to check.

- 1 Which city is called the most romantic city in the world by more than fifty percent of Europeans?
- 2 Which is the cheapest city to live in?
- 3 Which statement about New York is true?
 - a) It's one of the safest big cities in the USA.
 - b) It's one of the most dangerous cities in the USA.

6 Read the text again and answer the questions.

- 1 Do people think that Vienna is a romantic city?
- 2 What's the problem with going to the Eiffel Tower?
- 3 According to the article, are Moscow, London and Tokyo expensive cities to live in?
- 4 Has New York always been a safe city?
- 5 How many people visit New York every year?
- 6 What are two famous sights in New York?

Find words in the text that match these meanings.

- 1 that many people like (paragraph 1)
- 2 a meal you eat outside, especially in the countryside (paragraph 1)

- 1 'No one listens to old people,' says Maria Amelia López on her blog. But she was wrong. A lot of people listened to her. When she died, aged ninety-seven, López was thought to be the world's oldest blogger and she was certainly one of the most successful. Her first post was made on her ninety-fifth birthday. It read, 'Today it's my birthday and my grandson, who is very stingy, gave me a blog.'

- A later post reads, 'Since that day I've had 1,570,784 visits from bloggers from five continents who have cheered up my old age.' From cleaning ladies in Brazil to the Spanish president, people have enjoyed reading what López had to say. She was funny and friendly and she had some strong opinions. 'Old people need to wake up a bit,' she said. 'You have to live life. Don't take pills and fall asleep in the armchair.'
- 3 At first, López didn't know anything about computers. 'I thought a blog was a kind of paper notebook,' she said. But her grandson, Daniel, who she lived with, set up a blog for her as a birthday present. At the time he had no idea how it would change their lives. López received hundreds of emails, many in languages she didn't understand. Although she had other helpers, including Daniel, and friends she met on the internet, she couldn't reply to everyone.
- 4 When she was on her own, López loved reading the online newspapers and chatting on the internet. She said it helped her to keep in touch with the younger generation. Teenagers wrote to López to tell her about their lives and ask her for advice. She thought that everybody should use the internet. For López, it was one of the best experiences of her life.

The biggest music video ever

- 1 On 21 December 2012, Gangnam Style, a music video by Korean musician Psy, became the first video in internet history to be watched by a billion people. This was such a high number that YouTube had to update its software to work with so many visitors. In May 2014, YouTube said that the video had two billion views another world record.
- The song is about Seoul's fashionable Gangnam area (often compared to Beverly Hills in California), and laughs at people who try to appear high class by saying they are 'Gangnam Style'. Psy laughs at them by singing oppan Gangnam style, saying he is 'Gangnam style' too.
- 3 The song has a unique dance, called the Horse Trot, where Psy dances like he is riding a horse. He said it took him a month to invent the dance, working with a professional dancer every day. They also tried moving like a panda and a kangaroo. Even important people such as Barack Obama and David Cameron have tried the dance, with mixed results. And in 2012 UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon said it was something which could create peace in the world!
- 4 The song was hugely successful. The South Korean government said that in 2012 it brought $13.4 million into the country. People in the music industry said it helped develop the internet as a way of making music popular. This means that music can come from anywhere, not just from North America and Europe. Love it or hate it, everyone knows the song. Just don't listen to it first thing in the morning, or you'll be singing it all day!

What our customers say about us

We paid a lot for our holiday with TravelBig, but it was definitely worth it. Lena, our guide, did so many things for us! On the first night there was a concert we wanted to go to and she 'took/did/got tickets for us. On the second day we 'worked/rented/invited a car and drove around the nearby towns. She 'offered/requested/recommended a great place – the old ruins just outside the town – and she even 'organised/made/paid a private tour for us! On our final night we 'helped/offered/invited Lena to dinner and she 'bought/booked/rented a table in one of the best restaurants I have ever been to. I would definitely recommend TravelBig.

UNIT 1 Recording 2

When I was eighteen, I went on holiday with a group of mates to Spain. We had a great time. Every day we went sunbathing on the beach and at night we went out dancing. On the last night, I met an American girl called Amy and we got on really well. We went to a 24-hour café and talked all night. Soon it was morning and we both had to go. We promised to write to each other when we got home, and at first we did. But after a few months we decided that it was too difficult because we lived in different countries, so we stopped. I started university and forgot about her. Ten years later, I started a new job in London. On the first day, I walked into the office and who do you think I saw? It was Amy! I recognised her immediately - she still looked the same. Of course, we were both really shocked to see each other. She explained that she now lived alone in London because of her job with the company. Well, of course, we got on really well again and we started hanging out with each other. I showed her round London and we went to museums, concerts and restaurants. It wasn't long until we fell in love! It felt right, so I proposed to her and she accepted! We got married soon after and had our son, Jamie. We're very happy together!

UNIT 2 Recording 3

1 I work on a safari as a guide. I take tourists to see the animals. Everyone thinks my job is dangerous, but I don't think so. Well, I didn't think so until last month. So, what happened? Well, I had a bus full of tourists. There were fifteen of them. It was a beautiful, clear evening and about seven o'clock we saw some elephants. Everyone wanted to take photos, so I told them they could get off the bus for a few minutes. So there we were - these tourists taking photos of the elephants. Then suddenly, the male elephant turned. It looked at us. And I could see that it was angry. So I told everyone to stand still. 'Don't move!' Well, the elephant continued looking at us and I thought that it was going to charge, you know, to run at us. I told the tourists to walk very slowly back to the bus. Then the elephant charged at us. I jumped into the bus and started driving as fast as possible. The elephant came very close and the tourists were all shouting and screaming. But it was OK in the end. We escaped.

2 I was on a safari holiday. It was a really beautiful place, very quiet. One evening, at about six o'clock, we went for a drive in the tour bus. There were twenty of us tourists. Well, we soon saw some elephants. They were drinking at a pool. So we got out of the bus to take photos. Anyway, suddenly, this large male elephant started looking very angry. Then it walked towards us. The guide told us to run back to the bus as fast as possible. So we did. This was a really bad idea because the elephant followed us. Then the guide got into the bus and drove away very fast. We were really quiet and calm because we didn't want to frighten the elephant. But it wasn't a nice experience and we were happy to get back to the hotel that night.

D = David T = Terry

- D: So what do you think, Terry? I put it on this wall because of the light.
- T: Um. It's ... it's ... well, I want to say I like it. But I don't.
- D: You don't like it?
- T: No, David, I don't. It's terrible.
- D: What?
- T: It's just black. All over. It's black on black. It looks like a painting of a black bird flying over a black building on a black night.
- D: It's modern art, Terry.
- T: I know, I know. But it doesn't say anything.
- D: What do you mean, it doesn't say anything? It's art. It doesn't talk.
- T: You know what I mean. It has no message. I don't understand it.
- D: You don't have to understand it, Terry. It's art. It just exists. It's not there to be understood.
- T: So why is it all black? Why not white? Or white and black? Or red, white and black?
- D: Why don't you ask the artist?
- T: How much did it cost?
- D: I'm not telling you.
- T: How much did it cost?
- D: Why?
- T: I want to know.
- D: It was expensive.
- T: What does that mean? What's expensive? Fifty dollars? Fifty thousand dollars?
- D: Nearer fifty thousand.
- T: Nearer fifty thousand dollars than fifty?
- D: Yes. Forty-five thousand. Forty-five thousand dollars.
- T: I can't believe it! You bought a black painting ... you spent forty-five thousand dollars ...
- D: I liked it. I like it. No, I love it.
- T: It's black, David. Black on black. I could paint it for you in five minutes.
- D: But you didn't.
- T: You didn't ask me to.
- D: I didn't want you to.
- T: Has Mary seen it?
- D: Not yet. She's away. She'll be back on Friday.
- T: Does she know you bought it?
- D: No. It's a surprise.
- T: Oh yes, it will be. A big surprise! Does Mary even like modern art?
- D: Yes. She'll like this.
- T: How do you know?
- D: I know.
- T: How?
- D: Because I know what Mary likes and what Mary doesn't like. And she'll like this.
- T: I hope so. Because if she doesn't, you're dead.

UNIT 4 Recording 2

I = Interviewer P = Professor

- I: Professor Morris, we're looking at learning and the different ways in which people like to learn, and one of the things we can look at is the type of learner. Is that right?
- P: Yes, research has shown that there may be many different types of learner. But one way we can look at this is to divide people into two groups: holists and serialists. Now, most people will probably use both approaches, but often we find people are quite strongly one or the other.
- I: Holists and serialists. So, what's the difference between the two?
- P: Well, students who are serialists like to study taking one step at a time. They look at a subject or topic and work through the different parts of the topic in order.
- I: And holistic learners? How are they different?
- P: The holists are very different. They like to have a general understanding of the whole topic. And they find it easier to study and learn if they have an idea of the 'big picture'. They don't worry so much about the detail.
- I: Oh. That's me. I think I'm more of a holist.
- P: Are you? Well, you see ...

UNIT 4 Recording 3

I = Interviewer P = Professor

- I: So, tell me a little bit more about the serialist. You said that they like to learn things in sequence, in order.
- P: That's right. So, they start at the beginning, and when they feel they've fully understood one part, then they are ready to move on to the next part. But it's very important to them that they understand the detail.
- I: OK. These are the kind of people who always read the instructions before they try a new piece of equipment or machinery.
- P: That's right.

- I: And what about the holistic learners?
- P: OK. Well, a holist never starts learning about a topic at the beginning.

 They jump around and get lots of information. So, they might pick up a book about the topic and choose a chapter in the middle and start reading there.
- I: That's like me. I choose the bit I'm most interested in.
- P: Exactly. But a serialist learner will start at the beginning and read each chapter in order.
- I: That's very interesting. What about writing? Is there a difference there too?
- P: Yes, absolutely. A serialist will make a careful plan of everything they have to write and then begin to research each area. But a holist will read about a lot of different things and have lots of bits of paper with notes. Then they will try to put the different pieces together when they begin writing.
- I: That's very true. There is paper everywhere. I think my tutors at university would like me to be more serialist.
- P: Yes, that's probably true ...

A twenty-one-year-old German tourist called Tobi Gutt wanted to visit his girlfriend in Sydney, Australia. Unfortunately, he typed the wrong destination on a travel website. He landed near Sidney, Montana, in the United States, 13,000 kilometres away. This is his story.

Tobi left Germany for a four-week holiday. He was wearing a T-shirt and shorts, perfect clothes for the Australian summer. But the plane didn't land in Australia. It landed in freezing-cold Montana in the United States.

He had to take a connecting flight, but when he looked at the plane to Sidney, he became confused. Strangely, it was very small. And then he realised his mistake. Sidney, Montana, was an oil town of about 5,000 people. It was also in the United States, not Australia.

Tobi then spent three days waiting in the airport. He had only a thin jacket in the middle of winter, and no money. A few friendly people helped him with food and drink until eventually, his parents and friends from Germany sent him some money. He bought a ticket to Australia, where, finally, he saw his girlfriend.

- A: Excuse me. I'm trying to find the internet café. Is this the right way?
- B: Yes. Keep going. You'll see it in front of you
- A: Can I walk?
- B: Yes, you can. It takes about ten minutes.

- A: Is it far to the tube?
- B: No. It's about two minutes' walk.
- A: OK. So I need to go left at the cinema?
- B: That's right. It's easy!

Part 1

- P: We're in Manchester, and this is table tennis for the over-fifties. The people who play here play three times a week, so you don't need to tell them about how exercise makes you feel better.
- W1: It gives you a great feeling. You feel fabulous. Any type of exercise is good for you, especially when you're my age. It just makes you feel good.
- Scientists have now worked out that you can live longer if you have a healthy lifestyle. They did some research. They followed 20,000 people for more than ten years, and they looked at the different lifestyles they had. The results are interesting. They showed that people who don't smoke, who do regular exercise and who eat five portions of fresh fruit and vegetables every day actually live longer. These people actually live about fourteen years longer than the people who didn't have such healthy lifestyles. They lived longer and they didn't have so many health problems. Doctors say that even making a small change to your lifestyle can make a big difference to your health. Also, don't worry if you've got bad habits now. It's never too late to start. So, does everyone agree that it's a good idea to give up smoking, eat healthily, and do exercise in order to live longer? We asked people on the street to tell us what they think.

Part 2

- W2: I don't know. I don't think it's that important. I mean, I don't eat five portions of fruit and vegetables every day. I don't like them, so I'm not going to do that.
- W3: If I go out with my friends in the evening, then I'm going to smoke. Having a cigarette is social. It's part of the fun.
- M: Absolutely. I think it's a great idea.

 Do exercise, eat well, stop smoking.

 And live a long and happy life.

 Everyone should do it.
- P: The message is clear: scientists are telling us that if we want to live a long and healthy life, we need to look at how we live. So, I'm going to have a game of table tennis.

I = Interviewer S = Susan

- I: So, Susan, why do people change their names?
- S: There are many reasons. Some of them are quite simple. For example, when a woman gets divorced, she might want to go back to her original name.
- I: Right.
- S: And, of course, other people just don't like their names. But then there are more interesting reasons.
- I: Can you give us some examples?
- S: Well, the boxer Muhammad Ali was originally called Cassius Clay. When he changed his religion, he also changed his name to Muhammad Ali.
- I: So, religious reasons.
- S: Yes. And for famous people especially actors and singers they need a name that's easy to say and easy to remember. So, for example, the singer Farookh Balsara ...
- I: Who's that?
- S: Farookh Balsara was the real name of Freddie Mercury.
- I: From Queen.
- S: That's right. The lead singer of Queen. And, of course, Freddie Mercury is easier to remember than Farookh Balsara. Or Georgios Kyriacos Panayiotou.
- I: Who?
- S: Georgios Kyriacos Panayiotou is the real name of the singer George Michael.
- I: Ah.
- S: It's the same with lots of singers, actually. Sting's real name is Gordon Sumner. The singer from U2, Bono his real name is Robert Hewson, and so on and so on. Now another reason people want to change their name, especially if they are immigrants from another country, is to identify with the new country. So maybe you're from Germany and your real name is Wilhelm. When you go to the United States, you might change it to William. Or your name is Andreas and you change it to Andrew.
- I: This probably happens a lot in the United States and England.
- S: Exactly. People want to mix with others. And having a name that's easy to recognise and to pronounce helps a lot. Another reason people change their names is to separate themselves from their family or from famous parents. Angelina Jolie's father is the actor John Voight. She was originally called Angelina Jolie Voight.
- I: But she dropped the name Voight.

5: That's right. And another reason for people changing their names is that there was a mistake. Oprah Winfrey's mother named her Orpah Winfrey. O-r-p-a-h. But there was a mistake on her birth certificate and everyone called her Oprah.

UNIT 8 Recording 1

Maggie and Joe Smith lived in the same house for fifty years. When Maggie was eighty-six years old, Joe died. The house was very big, so Maggie decided to move. She sold the house to a businessman called David Jones. A few weeks later, Maggie was at the hairdresser when she heard someone say that the new owner, David Jones, had found some money in her old house. She contacted Mr Jones. He told her there was $10,000 hidden in the wall. Then he said they could share the money: $5,000 for him and $5,000 for her. She agreed. A few days later, Mr Jones visited Maggie Smith. He had a contract. The contract said that Maggie Smith should agree to accept $5,000 for any money found in or around the house. Mrs Smith thought this was very strange. She didn't sign it. In fact, she took Mr Jones to court. In court, Mr Jones told the truth:

there wasn't $10,000. There was $150,000 in the walls, mainly in fifty-dollar or a hundred-dollar notes. Joe Smith, Maggie's husband, was putting money in the wall for fifty years and he never told his wife. So what happened in the end? The judge decided that Maggie Smith should get all of the money. David Jones got nothing.

UNIT 9 Recording 3

- 1 I'm lucky living by the sea. Every morning I see fishermen coming in after work. There's always something to do because the sea is always different. Every day you see something different. When I was younger, we used to have parties and sleep on the beach. We cooked fish and listened to Bob Marley, and that was fun. These days I still go for walks every day with my dog. We've seen dolphins here. And we saw a dead whale on the beach once. It was enormous. It was on the beach
- 2 As a child, I played in a tree house in the garden. We were always outside. We invented games and we knew the names of animals and insects. We played in our garden or in our friends' gardens. It was very safe in those days. You could be outside all day. When I was young, we didn't have computers or even the television. And there wasn't as much crime, so we really grew up in the garden.
- 3 I go hiking and camping in the mountains. You can do that here in the summer. In the winter it's too cold. I think Americans like me enjoy the wild. We like big spaces, big skies. I'm just a few miles from a city, but there are all kinds of plants and animals out here. You can see deer and bears. It's pretty amazing.
- 4 I work with animals all the time. We have chickens, cows and pigs on the farm. There are a lot of farms around here, so it's completely normal to see animals around. I really like feeding the pigs 'cause they're quite funny to watch. One thing I don't like is getting up early. We do it every day. We get up at five in the morning and I'm always half asleep.

- S: OK, right. My name is Sophie Dunston and I'm sixteen years old. Well, one thing I don't like is people using their mobile phones or laptops or other technology at the wrong time.
- I: What do you mean by 'the wrong time'?
- S: For example, during lessons. Or any time when someone's trying to talk to them.
- I: Isn't this normal now?
- S: I don't think so. Some of my friends don't even hear their parents because they spend their whole life wearing headphones. I think it's really rude.
- I: And how would you stop this?

S: Well, in my school they banned personal technology during lessons and I think it was a really good idea. People can concentrate much better now.

- I: Luis, can you just introduce yourself briefly?
- L: Yeah, I'm thirty-five years old and I'm a waiter. Shall I answer the questions?
- I: Yes, go ahead.
- L: OK. Well, for me the worst thing is litter.
- I: On the street?
- L: Litter on the street. People just throw away bits of paper or drop food. But it's also on the tube. I'm a Londoner. I go to work every day by tube and people just leave their newspapers lying around. And all this paper is a real mess.
- I: How can we stop it?
- L: I don't think you can stop it. The government has tried to introduce fines, but it hasn't worked.
- I: What punishment would you suggest for people who drop litter?
- L: I'd make them clean the streets.

- I: If you just give your name and age.
- P: All right. My name is Pamela and I'm seventy years old. But I think I'm a young seventy. Unlike most of my older friends, I love technology and I use email every day. But the one thing I hate about it is spam. It is so annoying. I think the people who are responsible should be forced to sit down and read millions of spam messages for six months.
- I: That would teach them!
- P: Of course it would.

- 1 I get bored very easily. I prefer being busy, so I'm always doing things. Some people just like to sit down and do nothing. But I can't do that. I need to be active.
- 2 I feel lonely sometimes if my partner goes away for work and I'm on my own at home. But then I call a friend or my sister. Or I speak to someone who I haven't spoken to for a long time. Then I don't feel lonely any more.
- 3 I get really confused when I have to do anything with numbers, like check bills or bank rates and things like that. I hate that kind of thing. I do find numbers confusing.
- 4 I am always amazed by nature the beauty of nature. You can just stand in a beautiful place and look at it, and it's just amazing.
- 5 I get nervous when I have to organise a social event – like if I'm having a party or lots of people round to dinner. I get nervous about what I'm going to cook and if I'll have time to do everything.
- 6 I worry about all kinds of things. Often I feel worried about the world when I see the news and all the problems. There are so many problems in the world and a lot of the time I try not to think about them and then suddenly, I'll start to worry.

UNIT 11 Recording 3

R = Robert M = Miriam

R: I think they've already changed the way we live. I mean, a lot of people, like me, spend a lot of their free time playing online games – and this has made me a more sociable person. It's difficult to play modern computer games alone. When you start the game, you also join a network of other people playing online, and you can join a team to play with other people around the world. I work as a lorry driver, so I spend a lot of time alone on the road. When I used to play computer games when I was younger, I sat in my bedroom, closed off from the world. Now when I play, I'm constantly talking to other players

- in real time. Because of this, I spend most of my free time talking to other people with the same interests. I used to be quite shy, but these days I find it easier to talk to people I don't know. So yes, I think computer games are changing the way we live, and it's a good thing.
- M: Well, they're not changing the way I live very much. I mean, they're just games, like any other game. I quite like computer games - some of them. There are lots of games I don't like, like the violent games, but for me it's just the same as the other things I do. I mean, sometimes I read a book or watch television to relax. Sometimes I go out for a walk and sometimes I play a computer game. It's not changing my life. I don't spend all my time on the computer. I use a computer for work, so I don't want to be on the computer all the time at home, too. And I think a lot of people are like me. In our free time we prefer to do other things.

- W: I'm really not sure about that. There's still a lot of work to do.
- M: That's true. But you can get some more staff so we can finish sooner. I'm sorry, but I don't see what the problem is.

UNIT 12 Recording 1

Some lines in films are so famous that people recognise them all over the world. One of these is the line, 'ET phone home,' which Drew Barrymore said in her role as Gertie in ET the Extra-Terrestrial, in 1982. This line helped start her acting career when she was only six years old. It made her one of the biggest child stars of the time.

Another line which helped an actor's career was 'I'll be back.' In a scene in The Terminator in 1984, Arnold Schwarzenegger tries to get into a police station, but they don't let him in. So he promises to return. And he does, by driving a car through the doors! Schwarzenegger used the same line again in many of his films. For many people, it's the first thing they think of when they hear his name.

When people think of Robert de Niro, they also remember the famous line, 'You talking to me?' from the 1976 film Taxi Driver. This line wasn't actually in the script. Robert de Niro just said it while they were filming and it became the line people remembered most in the film. Sometimes words are connected to the role, not the actor who says them. All James Bond actors so far have introduced themselves with the line, 'My name's Bond. James Bond,' after Sean Connery first said it in the film Dr No in 1962. 'Frankly my dear, I don't give a damn.'

'Frankly my dear, I don't give a damn.' Now this was perhaps the most famous line ever said on screen. Clark Gable said it at the end of Gone with the Wind, in 1939. It was used to show that his character didn't care what happened to Scarlett O'Hara, even though he was in love with her. People thought the word damn was a very bad word in the USA at the time. But this just made the line more powerful.

The Greatest Mind in Fiction

Most of fiction's great minds belongs belong (gr) either to criminals or to the men and women who catch them. A The (gr) greatest of these is probably Sherlock Holmes. The Holmes stories were written by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, (p) a docter doctor (sp) from edinburgh Edinburgh (p), Scotland. Conan Doyle knew a lot about the human body and pollice police (sp) work, and he has (gr) used this information in his books. Very quickly, Conan Doyle's hero beccame became (sp) popular. When Holmes was killed in one story, thousands of readers protested. Conan Doyle changed his mind, and Holmes appeared in another story. (p)

Maggie and Joe Smith lived in the same house for fifteen fifty years. When Joe died, Maggie sold the house to David Jones. A few years weeks later, Maggie heard someone say that Jones had found some money in her old house. Jones told her there was $10,000 in the wall. He offered her $5,000. She agreed. A few days later, Jones asked Maggie to sign a contract that said she should accept $5,000 for any money found in the garden or around the house. She didn't sign it. Instead, she took Jones to court. In court, he told the truth: there wasn't $10,000. There was $15,000 $150,000. Joe Smith, Maggie's husband, was putting money in the wall for fifty years and he never told his wife. In the end, the judge decided that Mr Jones Maggie should get all of the money.
