OXFORD

Welcome to Speak NOW

Communicate with Confidence

Communicating with confidence means expressing yourself accurately, fluently, and appropriately. English in Action lessons throughout the Student Book present video clips which show students how to use target language in real-life settings. The video is available through Oxford Learn Online Practice, DVD, and on the iTools Classroom Presentation Software CD-ROM.

Online Practice powered by oxfordlearn

Speak Now Online Practice features over 100 engaging self-study activities to help you improve your speaking, pronunciation, and listening skills.

Use the access card on the inside back cover to log in at www.oxfordlearn.com/login.

Maximize Speaking

Every activity in every lesson includes a speaking task to ensure students maximize their opportunity to develop confident conversation skills. In each two-page lesson, students learn key Vocabulary, practice these new words and develop structured speaking skills through the Conversation activity, study new functional language in the Language Booster section, and then develop either Pronunciation or Listening skills in preparation for a communicative Speak with Confidence activity.

Rich: Donna, welcome back from your trip! When did you get back?
Donna: Yesterday afternoon. I'm pretty tired.
Rich: Did you have a good trip?
Donna: Yeah, I—
Rich: Hey, what happened to your finger?
Donna: Oh, I broke it.
Rich: How awful!
Donna: I know. It was on the first day. It was my fault. I closed the taxi door on it. Besides that, I had a fantastic time. You'll never guess what I did. I rode an elephant!
Rich: That's exciting!

Donna: It was. We were in Chiang Mai and we did a three-day trip into the rainforest. It was so beautiful, and my elephant was really friendly. But then it started to rain. And it rained and rained. So, we stayed inside for two days.

Rich: How terrible.

Donna: Oh, it was OK. I just wanted to rest.

Rich: So, what did you do after that?

Donna: You won't believe this.

Rich: What?

Donna: I took a cooking class. I now know how to make Thai food.

Rich: That's fantastic! You know, I love Thai food. So, um, do you, um—

Reid: That's nice. What are you going to do on Sunday?

Alan: I'm going to stay home and read. How about you?

Reid: I'm going to go to the science museum. They have a new robots display. Want to come?

Eric: Hi, Jill.

Jill: Hi, Eric.

Eric: How's it going? How was your weekend in Washington, D.C.?

Jill: Fantastic! It was really a great time.

Eric: Oh yeah? What did you do there?

Jill: Well, first, I took a bus tour of the city.

It really is such a beautiful place—so many interesting buildings and monuments.

I love the Washington Monument.

Eric: Yeah. The monument is incredible.

Jill: Then I went to the Smithsonian Museum.

There's always so much stuff to see there.

Eric: Yeah, I saw a great dinosaur exhibition the last time I was there. It was fantastic.

Jill: Wow! After that, I decided to walk to the Lincoln Memorial, but then it started to rain and I got completely wet.

Eric: How awful!

Jill: No, it was OK. I went back to my hotel, changed my clothes, and went out again later, this time with an umbrella!

Eric: Good thinking.

Jill: That night, I went to a classical concert. How about you? What did you do last weekend?

Eric: Not much really. I worked all day on Saturday. On Sunday, Tom and I played tennis.

Jill: Oh, you exercised!

Eric: Yep. After that we went to a movie. We saw the new James Bond film.

Jill: You did? How was it?

Eric: It was great! Then we went shopping.

Jill: Did you buy anything?

Eric: Yeah, I got this video camera. It was $500, but I got it on sale for only $175. You won't believe what I got on this video camera.

Jill: What?

Eric: I was at the park, and I saw an elephant!

Jill: No way! Why was the elephant in the park?

Eric: It had escaped from the zoo! It wasn't dangerous. I even gave it my sandwich. It was incredible, and I have it all on video. I'm going to put it on YouTube.

Jill: Oh! I want to see!

Eric: Hold on...

Tom: Hello? Helloooooo?

Tom: Hello! Hi Eric! This is a really nice camera. I just wanted to tell you that. I hope I didn't erase anything important.
