FAMILY WELCOMES BABY SIXTEEN

Baby Katelyn is the latest child of Jeni and Ray Bonell of Queensland, Australia. They have got sixteen children – seven girls and nine boys.

Life in the Bonell house is noisy, but they've got rules so things don't get too crazy. The house has got seven bedrooms but each child sleeps in his or her own bed. Jesse and Brooke, the two oldest kids, don't live with the family. They have got their own homes in the neighbourhood but they often visit.

Jeni says that having a big family is normal for them. Her day-to-day life is similar to the life of other mums, just with more washing to do and bigger meals to cook. Food shopping costs about $600 a week. Meals and house cleaning are big jobs, but all the children help from the age of eight. One of the Bonell's neighbours says, 'I've only got two children and I haven't got time for myself. I don't know how Jeni and Ray do it. And they love it. They're great parents!'

Giving each of their children enough time and attention isn't easy, but it's important for both parents. 'Jeni and Ray spend so much time with the kids,' says a family friend. 'The kids definitely feel loved and happy and the new baby is beautiful.'

places in towns; prepositions

READING

- 1 A Work in pairs. Look at the photos and discuss. What are the places? Why are they unusual?
- B Read the text and check your ideas.

around town

Walk through any town in the world and you usually find a post office, a supermarket, a school, a bank, a cinema, a library and so on. But these places are different.

A tourist in Vanuatu (2,000 kilometres east of Brisbane, Australia) can send a postcard from a very unusual place: an underwater post office! You buy your plastic postcard on the beach, write it, and then swim down to the post office. But check the opening times - the post office is only open for one hour a day!

You can borrow a book in Pakistan and return it in Canada - that's the idea of the Little Free Library (LFL). This LFL is in Lakki Marwat. Pakistan, but there are over 12,000 of these libraries all over the world, in North and South America, Africa, Asia and Australia. They are usually simple, small wooden houses, big enough for twenty books, and the library is free for everyone.

The Sol Cinema is perhaps the smallest cinema in the world. It's often in South Wales, but it can travel anywhere. There's enough space for sixteen people, and they only show short films up to ten minutes long. When you go to see a film at Sol Cinema, you choose the type of film, get a ticket and a bag of popcorn, sit inside and enjoy the show. It's called Sol Cinema because it's solar powered.

C Work in pairs and match the sentences with the place. Write PO (post office), L (library) or C (cinema).

- 1 'They're plastic, not paper.' PO

- 4 'Sorry, we're only open for a short time. You can send it tomorrow.'
- 5 'Twelve people? OK. Four more can come too.'

Hi Pedro,

То

Congratulations! Your new girlfriend sounds great. Yes, I've got an idea for an easy recipe. I'm sure her parents will like it. People always love this dish and it's easy to make.

First, cook some pasta. Then you need a lot of different vegetables, for example some onions, peppers, aubergine and tomatoes. Cut them all up into small pieces (but not too small). Next, heat some oil in a big frying pan or wok, and put the vegetables in. I usually start with the onions and add the tomatoes last. But it's not so important, just fry everything and stir it together. After that, add salt and pepper, and then lots of chopped garlic, and soy sauce. Finally, add the pasta to the cooked vegetables, stir it all around and cook it some more. That's it! Good luck!

Or you can order a pizza! Best wishes, the world? The company calls it 'the longest, hardest, highest, hottest, coldest bicycle tour in the world'. In eighteen weeks you travel over 12,000 kilometres through seven different countries and have the most exciting ride of your life.

Sandra

The Silk Route Bike Tour: is it the greatest journey in 'A thousand years ago people went by camel and did about twenty-five kilometres a day,' says Nate Cavalieri, one of the Silk Route Tour staff. 'But on a bike you do twenty-five kilometres in an hour.' And along the way you see some of the most beautiful places in the world. From Shanghai, you go across Asia, through Iran and arrive in Istanbul, Turkey, at the end. You travel across the deserts of China and cycle the Pamir Highway to over 4,600 metres, across the 'Roof of the World' in the mountains of Tajikistan. On the way there are villages, markets and ancient buildings.

At night, you stay in ancient roadside hotels or in camps. A chef cooks dinner for about half of the 133 days; on other days cyclists can eat in local restaurants or shop in local markets for their food.

One cyclist blogged, 'The best thing was the friendliness of the people.' And the worst things? 'The snow and the cold in the Pamirs.'

6 A Work in pairs and read the article. Which question in Exercise 4A does it answer? Which of the three places would you most like to visit?

My London

London is the capital of the UK. It's in the south-east of England on the River Thames. Tourists love its famous sites: Buckingham Palace, Big Ben, the wonderful art galleries and museums. But where do you go to escape the tourists? Here are three ideas:

Little Venice – This is a beautiful area in the north of London with water all around. It's a good place to sit, have a coffee and watch people on their houseboats.

Sir John Soane's Museum – John Soane was an architect and an art collector and in his house (the museum) there are many strange and amazing objects. Morning is the best time to go there – it's nice and quiet then.

Temple Gardens – These are some of my favourite gardens in London. They're in the centre of London near the River Thames in an area for lawyers and law companies. They're perfect for a walk or a picnic lunch especially in summer.

B Read the article again. For each place, which questions does the writer answer? Where is it? What can you see or do there?

When is a good time to visit?

8.1) HAVING A GREAT TIME

G present continuous P weak forms: prepositions and articles verbs + prepositions

I Researchers from Penn University looked at over fifteen million Facebook messages, and tried to answer some questions: Do men and women use different words in their messages? How is the language of a younger and older person different? They found some surprising things.

2 The researchers studied messages from over 75,000 people. They looked at the language in the messages and also the most popular topics for messages.

3 They found some big differences between men and women. Women use more adjectives and phrases for feelings, for example: 'excited', 'wonderful', 'love you' and <3, the emoticon for a heart. They often talk about family and friends.

4 Men talk about sport, computers, game consoles and videos (Xbox and YouTube are popular). They also often use swear words. It's interesting that men use 'my wife' and 'my girlfriend' more than women. Women often put 'amazing' in front of 'husband' or 'boyfriend'.

5 And what about age? It isn't surprising that thirteento eighteen-year-old kids talk about school a lot ('school', 'homework', 'English') but people from twenty-three to twenty-nine speak about work ('at work', 'new job', 'office'). Older people are more interested in family and friends and their favourite words are 'son', 'daughter', 'my kids' and 'friends'.

6 So, let's see how the research works for us. Look at these messages from two friends. What can you say about the writers?

- 💕 Wonderful birthday! Katya brought me breakfast in bed this morning and now Yuri is cooking dinner (tomato pasta). I'm lucky to have such a lovely family.
- I'm having a great time here in Brazil with my girlfriend. We're relaxing by the swimming pool AND Brazil won the football last night! Life is perfect. Thinking about you all in the office! See you next week.

Everybody said they go to festivals. Most people go to rock music festivals, some go to folk music festivals, but only one of us goes to literature festivals.

We asked everyone about the changes in festivals. Here are the answers:

- Price Everyone said festivals are more expensive than before.
- Security Some people said there's no change. The rest of the group said there's much more security now than five years ago.
- Fashion Some people didn't have an opinion about fashion at festivals. A few people said people wore more interesting and colourful clothes in the past.
- Technology Two students said the biggest changes were in technology, but most of the group said there's no change. People found information and bought tickets on the internet five years ago, the same as now.

MEXICO'S BIKE REVOLUTION

It's a quiet Sunday morning on the city's Avenida Reforma. On weekdays there are tens of thousands of cars here, but today there's not one car. In 2007, Mexico City closed its main road to cars on Sundays. That was the first big step towards becoming a bike-friendly city, and three years later, in 2010, it started a new bike sharing system, the 'EcoBici'.

Now, with over 4,000 bikes, 276 cycle stations, and 87,000 users, Mexico City has one of the most successful bike share systems in the Americas. Cyclists can take a bike from one cycle station and leave it at any other station in the city between the hours of 6.00a.m. and 00.30a.m. Users have to be over sixteen and pay 300 pesos by credit or debit card for a year's use. They don't have to pay anything for the first forty-five minutes of each journey.

Forty-nine-year-old businessman Mateo Reyes likes the scheme. 'I only use my car when I'm too tired to cycle, but I go by bike when the traffic is bad. And the traffic is almost always bad.' But he thinks it will take some time before cyclists and drivers learn to be happy sharing Mexico City's roads.

READING

3 A Look at the photo of EcoBici, the bike share system in Mexico City. Write four questions with how much, how many, who and where.

How much does it cost?

- 4 It costs nothing for one hour's cycling.
- 5 Mateo Reyes always uses a bike.
- 6 Rafael thinks driving a taxi is more difficult now.

D Work in pairs and discuss. Is this kind of bike system a good idea for your town/city? Why/Why not?

Not everyone likes the EcoBicis. 'There are more and more cyclists on the road, and that's not so good,' says Rafael, a taxi driver. 'We have to be extra-careful now. They ride in the middle of the traffic, they go too fast. It's dangerous for everyone.'

The train left fifteen minutes late. But that wasn't the problem – it simply didn't go very fast. We really knew there was a problem when a man on a bike went faster than us! I was an hour late for work. The boss wasn't happy ... but she doesn't take the train.

Tuesday

OK, I didn't hear my alarm so I woke up late and missed my train. I got the next one, but then the train stopped in the middle of nowhere ... for twenty minutes! The guard said there was a signal problem and then the air-conditioning stopped working! Imagine, no air-conditioning in the middle of summer! I was two and a half hours late for work and really hot and sweaty. My boss was very unhappy.

Wednesday

Service: 0 points. Originality: 10 points. We stopped again, for no reason, but then there was a reason – not the signals, not the engine but a cow on the line! Poor thing, we didn't stop in time. This time, I was two hours late for work and my boss didn't believe me ...

Then I waited for the next train, the nine fifteen, and everything was fine until we just stopped – just stopped – in the middle of nowhere. The guard said that there was a signal problem. Bring a warm sweater and a raincoat and a hat as well because there's an old saying: 'If you can't see the mountains, it's raining. If you can see them, it's going to rain in five minutes.' # Are you a multi-taske

I had lunch with a friend yesterday. In one hour, she answered three text messages, had two short phone conversations, checked her email, ordered her food, ate it and paid for it. And in that one hour, she and I didn't stop talking for more than a few seconds.

My friend is a typical multi-tasker, and maybe you are too. Multi-tasking - doing two or more tasks at the same time - is normal for many people. But it's not good for you.

READING

- 1 A Work in pairs. Look at the photo and answer the questions.
- 1 What does a multi-tasker do?
- 2 Are you a multi-tasker?
- 3 How many different tasks can you do at one time?

B Read the introduction to the article. How many different tasks did the writer's friend do?

C Work in pairs. Write three ways that multi-tasking is bad for you. Then read part two of the text. How many of your ideas are the same?

What happens when you multi-task?

- You think you work quickly, but in fact you work slowly. Multi-taskers do less work in an eight-hour day than non-multi-taskers.
- 2 Your memory gets worse. You forget names and numbers. You can't remember normal things easily, for example vour bank PIN number.
- 3 You eat very fast, and you eat too much. You don't think about your food when you're eating.
- 4 You have problems with friends and loved ones. You don't listen to them carefully, and they feel this.
- 5 You do some tasks badly. You make mistakes because you are doing two things at the same time.
- 5 Finally and this is the big one your stress levels go up, and that's the biggest problem.

D Read the last part of the text. Work in pairs and discuss. Do you think the writer's plan is a good idea?

What can you do about it?

It's very easy: Do one thing at a time. When you eat, eat. When you read, read. And when you talk to a friend, only talk - and listen.

Remember my friend? Next week we're going to meet in the park, turn off our phones, have no food or drink, and just talk and listen. That's my plan - SHE doesn't know it yet. I'll let you know what happens.

FUNCTION

OFFERING TO HELP

2 Read the article and guess the missing city name.

The most helpful city

When someone sees a person in trouble, do they stop and help or just 'walk on by'? Researchers from the USA decided to answer the question 'Which is the most helpful city in the world?'. They went to twenty-three capital cities and did three experiments to find out:

- a) A person is walking along the street and drops his/her pen.
- b) A person with a broken leg drops some papers.
- c) A blind person is trying to cross the road.

They found that people in Spanish-speaking cities were usually the most helpful. Madrid, San Salvador and Mexico City each scored highly. People in these cities gave help with a smile and seemed happy to give their time. People in New York came near the bottom: they were often too busy or were in a hurry. They also said they sometimes didn't offer help because it was dangerous or because people got angry with them. And the most helpful city in the world? ______, in Brazil.

D Horizon: Sugar Versus Fat

It's one of the big questions of our time: Which is worse for you, fat or sugar? Twin brothers (and doctors) Chris and Xand Van Tulleken go on a special diet to try to answer the question. For one month, Chris eats only high-sugar food and no fat and Xand eats only high-fat foods and no sugar. They do a number of experiments. For example, in a bike race up a hill, which one of them is the fastest? Finally, the twins do the 'doughnut test'. They ask people in New York and London to choose their favourite type of doughnut.

Waking up with aches and pains is all part of the job.

Eunice Huthart has accidents all the time. She's jumped off ships and fallen off buildings. She's driven cars very fast and crashed them, and she's loved every moment. Eunice is a stunt double in films and does things that most of us think are crazy.

> Crashing a car at high speed, walking away, and then waking up the next morning with a few aches and pains is all part of the job for a stunt double. Eunice has done stunts in Harry Potter and James Bond films. She's been Angelina Jolie's stunt double in many films, from the Lara Croft: Tomb Raider series to Maleficent.

Eunice has broken some bones, and perhaps her worst accident was during Titanic when she jumped off the ship onto some boxes and broke her cheek bone. Eunice worked on Titanic in her first year as a stuntwoman, in 1996.

Broken bones and other injuries are normal for stunt doubles. So why do they do it? Most talk about the excitement, the challenge and the big money.

Eunice now works more as a stunt director, directing other stunt performers. Altogether she has worked on over fifty films.

Eunice loves her job, but in the end she's a family person. When asked about the most memorable moment in her life, she talked about the birth of her daughter and Liverpool winning the European Cup.

Broken bones and other injuries are normal.

GRAMMAR

5.1 Countable and uncountable nouns

There are two types of nouns in English: countable nouns and uncountable nouns.

- Countable nouns are things you can count in English. They are singular or plural.
   a banana, an apple, potatoes
- Uncountable nouns are things you can't count in English, e.g. water, rice, bread. They are never plural. NOT one water, two rices, three breads
- Drinks are usually uncountable, e.g. coffee, tea, juice but you can say a juice (= a glass of juice) or three coffees (= three cups of coffee).
- It is also possible to use containers or amounts with the noun to show quantity, e.g. a glass of water, two kilos of rice
- Use a singular verb with uncountable nouns.
   Water is good for you. NOT Water are ...
   There's sugar in this coffee. NOT There are sugar ...

5.2 How much/many; quantifiers

- Use some + plural countable nouns or uncountable nouns.

We've got some vegetables. There's some butter in the fridge. (Some = not an exact number)

• Use any + plural countable nouns or uncountable nouns in questions and negatives.

Have you got any sweets? There isn't any milk.

 Usually use some (NOT any) to ask for things or to offer something to a person.
 Can I have some coffee?
 Would you like some tea?

Ask questions with how many + plural countable nouns. How many tomatoes are there in that bag? How many vegetables do you eat in a week?
Use quantifiers for short answers to How much/many ...?

+	He/She/It	's	watched	the sun rise.
	I/You/We/They	haven't	tried	milk in tea.
-	He/She/It	hasn't	slept	outside.

Make the present perfect with have/has + past participle. Use the present perfect to talk about past experiences in your life. Usually you don't know or say when exactly these things happened. For regular verbs, the past participles are the same as the past simple: verb + -ed, -d or  $\frac{1}{2}$ -ied.

miss – *miss*ed – *miss*ed, move – *mov*ed – *mov*ed, *stud*y – *stud*ied – *stud*ied For irregular verbs, look at the list on page 127.

?	Have I/you/we/they		(ever)		Yes, No,	l/you/we/they	have. haven't.
	Has	he/she/it	swum	in a river?	Yes, No,	he/she/it	has. hasn't.

ever = 'in your life'. We often use it for more unusual experiences.
Have you ever met a famous person? (Compare to Have you met my husband?)
In the negative you can use never. I've never played golf.

12.2 present perfect and past simple

Use the present perfect to talk about past experiences in your life. You don't say exactly when. I've been to Egypt. I've seen the Great Pyramid. Use the past simple if you say when something happened. I went to Egypt three years ago. I saw the Great Pyramid when I was there. When speaking, it is possible to start a conversation by asking a question in the present perfect and then asking about more details in the past simple. A: Have you ever been to Egypt?

B: Yes, I have. I went there three years ago.

- A: Did you like it?
- B: Yes, it was great!

12.3 telephoning

or Sue and Noel Radford, 'Big is beautiful' when you talk about families. They've got sixteen children - nine boys and seven girls. They are also grandparents, as their daughter Sophie has got a one-year-old daughter, Daisy.

The Radford family lives in a nine-bedroom house. Sue and Noel have got a bakery down the road from the house, and the family travels everywhere in their seventeen-seat minibus.

Life in the Radford house starts early. Noel goes to the bakery at 4.30a.m., gets home for breakfast at 7.30, takes the school-age children to school and then goes back to the bakery. At 3p.m. he brings the children home from school and then he cooks dinner every night - often spaghetti or homemade pizza.

So why do they have so many children? Sue smiles and says, 'I love having children around me. I like all the noise and activity.'

A family friend says, 'They're a lovely family and the children are really good kids. Sue and Noel are great parents.'

It's true, Sue and Noel don't have very much time alone. They don't go out to restaurants or to the cinema and they only talk about the children - there's no time to talk about other things.

C: What's a special occasion in your country? J: Hogmanay.

C: Hog ... er ... man ...?

J: Hog-man-ay. Let me tell you about it. OK ... Hogmanay happens in Scotland on New Year's Day. In our families, on the day before Hogmanay, we always clean the house - all day - because it's important to start the New Year in a clean house. Then, in the evening, we usually have a big party with friends and family. At midnight we stand in a circle, join hands, sing 'Auld Lang Syne' ... you know. I think people sing this in a lot of countries now. We also have a special custom. After midnight, the first person who visits the house gives presents to the family, usually shortbread or coal. This brings good luck. Then we eat and drink. The party often goes on all night. I like it because all our friends and family come together and it's a great start to the New Year!

One of my favourite places in the world is Lake Titicaca. It's between Bolivia and Peru and is, oh, about 4,000 metres above sea level. The water is always very, very cold. I go there every year with my family and we stay in a small town near the lake. When I'm there, I usually go out on the lake in a boat, and sometimes I visit one of the small islands. Sometimes there are big waves on the lake, but it's usually very quiet. So why do I like the lake? Well, I love its deep blue colour and it's a great place to relax.

Lesson 5.1 Recording 5.2

I travel around the world and I usually stay with friends, not in hotels. I always take photos of my friends, and last year I started taking photos of their fridges, too. It's amazing what a fridge can tell you about a person. Look at this picture ... You can see right away it's a single person, probably lives alone. There isn't much food in this fridge, and maybe he doesn't like cooking. There's some takeaway food here, Chinese takeaway. There's not a lot of food, but he's got some broccoli, some peppers and an apple up here. Oh and some garlic. I know he's a big meat eater ... let's see, has he got any meat? OK, in this photo he hasn't got any meat, but I know he likes meat.

Look at all these vegetables and fruit - I mean he tries to be healthy. And I know him well. His name's Vinnie and he lives in New York City. He's single, a businessman, a quiet, serious guy. He buys fruit and vegetables, but he doesn't often cook; he often has takeaway food or goes out to restaurants.

Look at this one. All this food - they've got some fish here, some chicken - a roast chicken, ready to eat - and there's a big pasta salad, and some really nice cheese. They've got all this water because they do a lot of exercise and they like having water with them when they go running or play tennis. You can see they try to be very healthy - just look at all that fresh food. But the main thing is all this food is ready to cook. That tells me that these people are friendly; they like having friends for dinner. And it's true, Mike and Liz are really friendly, and I love staying with them because they're funny and intelligent and there are always lots of people around in their apartment. I stay with them every time I go to Lisbon.

One of my favourite dishes is American pancakes. I like them because they're easy to make and not too sweet. Americans often eat pancakes for breakfast, but I like eating them at any time, hot or cold.

So, you need some flour, some sugar and a bit of salt, some baking powder, a cup of milk, an egg and a little oil. Mix together the milk, egg and oil in a big bowl. Then add the flour, sugar and salt. Stir everything together.

After that, you put a little oil in a frying pan and heat it, but not too hot. Put some of the pancake mix into the pan. After about one minute turn the pancake over, and then wait about two minutes. Take it out and make some more. Pancakes are really good with butter and honey, or with lemon and sugar, but some people like them plain, with nothing on them. Lesson 6.1 Recording 6.2

I: Thank you for joining us today and welcome to the programme, Fernanda. F: Thank you.

I: We are all very interested to know more about your work. But, first of all, let's start from the beginning ... erm, where were you born? F: I was born in San Pedro in Honduras in nineteen seventy-three. I: Can I ask you about your childhood? F: Yes, of course. I was the fourth child in a very big family - there were eleven of us. My father was a teacher and my mother cleaned houses for rich people.

I: Did you go to school?

F: Yes, I did. Education was very important to my parents

I: When did you decide to work with poor children? F: When I was in school, one of my friends lost his parents. He had no family ... no living grandparents, so he moved to a house for orphans. I visited him and when I saw his life there I decided to work with orphans, children with no parents or children who lost their parents. I: When did you open your orphanage? F: We opened it in two thousand and six. I: We?

F: Yes, my husband and I. We got married in two thousand.

I: And who's your hero?

F: I'm glad you asked that - it's Mother Teresa. I often think about her words: 'I can do no great things, only small things with great love. I: That's very true. So how many kids are there at the orphanage?

F: At the moment we have about two hundred and fifty. We usually have between two and three hundred. I: You're very busy, then!

F: Yes, I am.

I: Do you ever have time to relax?

F: Not much, but when I have time, I like to read.

I: Ah, so what's your favourite book? F: Let me think about that. I like many books but Long Walk to Freedom is one of my favourites. It's the story of Nelson Mandela's life in his own words. I: That sounds interesting, thank you. OK ... now.

it's time to ask the audience for questions. Are there any questions for Fernanda ... ?

W: Not always! OK, number two. It says 'I like staying in a) a hotel, b) a self-catering apartment or c) a tent'.

M: Forget the tent! Erm In an apartment. And you? W: In a hotel.

M: Really. A hotel's more expensive than an apartment!

W: Yeah, but it's more comfortable. Hmm ... next question. Do you prefer: relaxing on a beach, doing something sporty or going sightseeing? M: What does it mean ... something sporty? W: Erm ... playing tennis or maybe golf. M: No, thank you! Not on holiday. But I hate staying on the beach all day. Boring! W: OK - there's one we answered the same. So we agree about that. M: Yeah, sightseeing's definitely more interesting than the beach! W: Right. When do you like going on holiday: in spring, summer or winter? M: In spring - I never go on holiday in winter, but I don't really like very hot weather. Tourist places are more crowded in summer.

W: True. But the weather's better. Summer's hotter than spring. I love hot weather.

M: Well, we don't agree there. Anyway, next question. What do you like eating: local dishes, the food you usually eat or fast food? W: Local dishes, I think. You?

M: Definitely!

W: Hmm, interesting. Next ... In the evenings I like going for a walk, going to a restaurant or going to a nightclub.

M: Erm, going to a restaurant.

W: Oh, good. Me, too. I don't like noisy places. M: Yes, I agree. Restaurants are quieter ...

more relaxing. But I like going for a walk too, sometimes, so I'm not sure. OK, let's say going to a restaurant.

W: And the last question ... how long is your perfect holiday? M: Three months.

W: You can't have three months! The answer is a degrees centigrade. I: Ah, was it? And what was the friendliest place? J: That's an impossible question. I can't say. We met so many fantastic people. I think Iran; the people there were so kind. Perhaps that was my biggest surprise. I: OK. What was the longest you travelled in one dav? J: One day we travelled about a hundred and fifty kilometres in western China. That was a long day! I: Very! So, what was the most beautiful building vou saw?

J: There were some great ones in all of the countries but my favourite building was the Bibi-Khanym Mosque in Uzbekistan. I think it's the most beautiful building in the world.

W: It's the same actor. Christian Bale. All three of these. M: Wow, that is amazing. He's so ... different. He's a lot bigger here and he's got glasses. W: Yeah, and longer hair. M: Which film is that from? W: American Hustle. M: Oh yeah, I remember now. And this one? W: That's him too, in The Machinist. He lost twentynine kilos for that film. M: Unbelievable. How did he do it? W: Let me see. Erm. He just had one apple and a cup of coffee every day. And water. And he ran a lot. M: That's not very healthy ... W: Then he put on fifty kilos for the next Batman film M: Crazv. W: I think he's great, though. He always changes his appearance for each film. M: A lot of actors do that. W: Yeah, that's what this article is about. Look at these M: That's erm, don't tell me, don't tell me ... erm .. I saw the film... ah Bridget Jones's Diary. I liked it. Oh ... what's her name? W: Renée Zellweger. M: That's right. That's an old film and how old is she now? W: In her forties I think. But she was in her early thirties when she was in Bridget Jones. M: I think she looks nice. W: Yeah, and look. This is her, too. M: Wow! W: This is her in Leatherheads. It came out in 2008. M: How did she do that? W: Erm ... it says she put on ten kilos for Bridget Iones, Pizza, chocolate, doughnuts. And then she lost it. But she doesn't look so different. M: No, just thinner, really. And she's wearing black in this picture, so she looks thinner. Her face is the same. I actually think she looks better like this, in Bridget Jones. W: I know what you mean. Oh this is interesting. M: What? W: Zellweger ate doughnuts to put on weight. And what's the first thing Christian Bale ate when he wanted to put on weight? M: Doughnuts? W: Yup. Now I'm hungry. H: What's it about? It's two astronauts, yeah? P: Yes, it's about two astronauts and they have an accident in space and they try to get back home. That's all. But it's fantastic. The photography is great. I think you'd like it. H: OK. Sounds good. Thanks.

I don't really like horror films. C: Let me think ... Do you know Happy-Go-Lucky? R: No, I don't think so. C: Well, it's a comedy but also a drama. I really liked it. And I laughed a lot. M: Rock festivals, folk festivals, theatre, literature ...

- M: Well, lots of ways
- W: OK, I'll say something about festivals, you tell me how it's different now.

M: OK.

W: Price?

M: More expensive. Much more expensive. W: OK. What about er security? M: Well, security is much better now. Sometimes it's too good! They check your bag when you go in and it takes a long time.

W: Mmm.

M: And there are more security people around. But it feels safer at these big festivals now. W: That's interesting. Erm ... how about what people wear? You know, fashion at festivals. M: Oh, I don't know. It depends on the festival. W: That's OK. One more thing: technology. M: Oh, that's a big change. Years ago you couldn't always get information on the internet. Or buy tickets.

W: Wow. I can't imagine that.

W: Well, I like travelling by train and I love going by car, because you can stop anywhere. But they're all too expensive now. M: Mmmm ... not really. You can travel for free. W: Sure, if you go by bike or on foot. M: No. Last year I was on holiday in the US, and I drove across the country for free.

W: How? M: I had a Driveaway car.

W: A driveway?

M: No, drive-A-way. Driveaway. It's a company. W: How does it work? M: Well, there was a family in New York, and they wanted to go to Los Angeles but they didn't want to drive there. It's almost five thousand kilometres. But they needed their car in Los Angeles. So they went by plane, and I drove their car to Los Angeles, to their hotel in the city centre. I had a week to get there. I stopped in the Grand Canyon on the way. It was the best journey ever - I love driving and I love cars.

W: That's amazing. And it's free?

M: Yeah, I just paid for petrol.

W: And did you have time to stop? M: I had a week, so I stopped in a few places. St Louis - I have friends there - the Grand Canyon.

W: That sounds great. M: It was wonderful. Not good for everybody. You can't choose the date or the place you want to go. But good for me

W: Yeah ... and is that the longest journey? The longest you travelled for free?

M: Erm, let me think. I once travelled about fourteen thousand kilometres for free ... by ship.

I was in Mombasa W: Where's that?

M: It's a city in Kenya.

W: And?

M: Well, it has a lot of big container ships. I found a ship that went to Indonesia.

W: For free? M: Well, I worked on the ship.

W: Oh, that sounds hard.

M: Not really. Well, long days, yes. But I learnt a lot

And I loved the slow life. In the evenings I loved watching the sun go down.

W: Was it difficult to find a ship?

M: It wasn't easy. But if you have time, it's possible.

W: That's the problem, isn't it? When I was

After that, it just went at walking speed - all the way to London. Really! There was a guy on a bicycle on the road next to us ... I think he got to London before we did!

K: Well, you're two hours late ... and the boss wants to see you.

K: Hey, Val. The boss wants to see you. Whoa! What happened to you? You're all wet! V: Believe me, it's a long story. First of all, I got up late because I didn't hear my alarm, so I only woke up at eight thirty. I ran to the train station usually I walk - but I missed the train by two minutes! Then I waited for the next train, the nine fifteen, and everything was fine until we just stopped – just stopped – in the middle of nowhere. The guard said that there was a signal problem. After that, the air-conditioning stopped working. It was like an oven - at least a thousand degrees! Finally, after forty minutes, we started moving ... very, very slowly. What could I do? Uh-oh, there's the boss. K: Yeah. She's not happy. Two and a half hours late, Val ... Good luck!

I woke up one morning and everywhere was white, there was white sand over all the cars and the streets. And everything was dry, your eyes, your mouth. Everything. The car was like an oven ... the metal of the car door was really hot. It was difficult to breathe. People told me it was the sirocco. The sirocco is a strong wind from Africa, from the desert. P: Dr Harper ... First, can you tell us ... how is flu

Dr H: Well one big difference is how they start. Flu starts very suddenly. One minute you're fine, you're OK, the next minute you feel terrible. You've got a headache - often a very bad headache - and sometimes a cough. You have a sore throat and your arms and legs hurt. You feel awful.

P: OK. And do you usually have a temperature?

Dr H: Yes, you get very hot. Usually you have a temperature of over thirty-eight degrees centigrade and you're too ill to do anything. You can't work. You just want to go home and go to bed. P: So it's serious.

Dr H: Yes. Don't try to work. You should go to bed. Get lots of sleep. Sometimes you have to stay in bed for a week or more. You shouldn't go back to work too soon.

P: Anything else?

Dr H: Yes, you should drink lots of water. P: Right. And what about a cold? How is a cold different from flu?

Dr H: Well, a cold starts slowly. Maybe it takes two or three days to start. It's a cold when you've got a bad throat ... or a cough and a runny nose and you don't feel very well. But - and here's the big difference - if you can get up and go to work, then you've probably got a cold, not flu.

P: So should you go to work with a cold? Dr H: Er, it depends. You don't want to give your cold to other people at work, so some people take two or three days off work or work from home. But, yes, you can usually work and after a week you usually feel better.

P: And after flu?

Dr H: After flu, you often feel very tired for a very long time, maybe three or four weeks. P: Should you rest a lot?

Dr H: Well, it depends, but be careful. For example, don't do too much sport or hard exercise until you feel better.

P: Another question about colds and flu. What do you think about antibiotics?

Dr H: Well, you shouldn't take antibiotics with a cold and ...

This happened in Australia ... when I was about twenty-five. I spent a few days at a hotel in Alice Springs and went to Ayers Rock and ... well, anyway, one day, I went out for a walk ... in the outback. It was a lovely day so I walked and walked ... and then I realised I didn't really know where I was. I was a bit stupid, really... because I decided to go further ... I guess I thought I'd find the way back. Erm ... anyway, after that I heard some dogs. First I heard them barking, and then I saw them ... there was a group - maybe five or six dogs, wild dogs, coming towards me. I felt really frightened, but I remembered some advice I, er ..., I read in my guidebook: Don't move, and don't look at the dogs. So I froze, like a statue ... I didn't move ... and I looked at a tree, not at the dogs, and didn't move my eyes. The dogs were all around me, jumping and barking ... I thought they were going to bite me. Then one dog did bite my arm, just a little, but still I didn't move. In the end, after about twenty minutes, the dogs went away. I stayed there for a few more minutes and then luckily found my way back to the hotel. It was the most frightening experience I've ever had!
